Provided, however, each shareholder may freely transfer its shares to the other shareholders holding the same group of shares, or its direct shareholders or its direct or indirect affiliates and subsidiaries or may establish rights of usufruct on its shares in favor of such shareholders/parties.

With regard to the transfer of shares by the shareholders to a third party or establishment of rights of usufruct on such shares in favor of a third party, other than the holders of the same group of shares, or their direct shareholders, or their direct or indirect affiliates and subsidiaries the Company may only refuse the demand for its approval and consent for such share transfer or for establishment of rights of usufruct thereon based on any or all of the following material reasons (the “Material Reasons”):

In such case, the Transferring Shareholder will grant an option right to the Offeree(s) for the purchase of the Offered Shares which shall be exercised within a period of 30 (thirty) days and if the whole of the Offered Shares is not purchased by the Offeree(s) in such option period of 30 days, the Transferring Shareholder may, upon completion of the process specified in Article 8.1 (ii), freely transfer the Offered Shares to the Potential Buyer at the Offered Price and Terms and such transfer shall be recorded in the share ledger of the Company. If a purchase notice for the Offered Shares is served by more than one Offeree, then each of such Offerees may purchase the Offered Shares pro-rata to its shareholding among the total number of non-public shares held in the Company by such Offerees. If and when only one of the Offerees wishes to acquire the Offered Shares, only whole of the Offered Shares will be purchased by such Offeree.

(ii) Besides (and even if such procedure is applied) with the procedure described in Article 8.1(i), the Company may purchase the Offered Shares at their actual value applicable at the moment the sales notice is served (the “Actual Value”) on behalf of itself, other shareholders or the third parties. For this purpose, the Company will send a notification to the other group of shareholders of the non-public shares (“Notified Shareholders”), requesting them to notify the Company of their intention to purchase the Offered Shares at their Actual Value in 20 (twenty) days (“Notice Period”). If only one of the Notified Shareholders is willing to purchase the Offered Shares, the Company will purchase only whole of the Offered Shares on behalf of such Notified Shareholder.

In the event that no purchase request received from the Notified Shareholders within the Notice Period or the Notified Shareholders are willing to purchase only a portion of the Offered Shares, within no later than 15 (fifteen) days after the expiry of the Notice Period, the Company may purchase: (a) all of the Offered Shares if none of Notified Shareholders serves a purchase request, or (b) the remaining portion of the Offered Shares if the Notified Shareholders are willing to purchase only a portion of the Offered Shares, on behalf of itself or third parties, in its sole discretion, at the Actual Value. Otherwise, the Transferring Shareholder may freely transfer all of the Offered Shares to the Potential Buyer at the Offered Price and Terms and such transfer shall be recorded in the Company share ledger. For the avoidance of doubt, in order to withhold its approval for the transfer of the Offered Shares by the Transferring Shareholder to the Potential Buyer by way of purchasing the Offered Shares at the Actual Value according to the provisions of this Article, the Company shall be obliged to purchase all of the Offered Shares at the Actual Value either on behalf of itself, the Notified Shareholders or third parties as stipulated in this Article 8.1(ii).

In the event of acquisition of shares by inheritance or portioning of inheritance or under a prenuptial agreement or through forced execution proceedings, the Company may reject such share transfer provided that the Company proposes to the acquirer to purchase its shares at the Actual Value.

For the purposes of this Article, the Actual Value of the Offered Shares shall be determined by the Company. If and when the Transferring Shareholder objects to the Actual Value determined by the Company, then and in this case, the Actual Value shall be determined by an independent audit firm having no direct or indirect shareholding or management relations with the Company or the Transferring Shareholder (the “Independent Audit Firm”), or by consultancy firms operating under a license, know-how or similar agreements entered into with the members of such Independent Audit Firms, or by intermediary institutions holding both an authorization certificate for underwriting of public offerings and an authorization certificate for investment counseling or by non-deposit banks.
